Draw a cheerful picture for someone who is sick.

Jesus healed many who were sick, hurt, or filled with unclean spirits.

Can you tell who is sick and who is well? Put a circle around those who are sick and a square around those who are well.

OUCH!

Reader

What do you know about God that you didn't know before?

Epiphany also means a sudden realization! Like a discovery or understanding.

The light of Christ will never go out!

Today our church family prays for...

Have you noticed we pray for people every week? Most of them are sick. Why do you think we pray for sick people in church?

Write a note to someone who is sick.

"That evening, at sunset, they brought to Jesus all who were sick or possessed with demons. And the whole city was gathered around the door."* Mark 1:32-33

Draw the people of the city around the door.
