

Lent is about listening to God.
What else is God telling you?
Sit quietly. Pray. Listen for God.

Draw while you pray.

One time I sat quietly
for a whole half hour!

A large, empty rounded rectangle with a thin black border, intended for a child to draw while praying.

Show someone your prayer when you are done.

Lent is a time when we think a lot about Jesus.
What's your favorite thing about Jesus?

What do you think Jesus looks like?
Draw him.

I like that he loves everyone!

God made rules for us to live together and protect us.

Circle the ones that are following the rules.

Rules might not make us happy, but they help us.

PSALM 19:14

Let the words of my mouth
and the meditation of my heart
be acceptable to you, O Lord,
my rock and my redeemer.

How many lines of this prayer can you memorize?

You can find prayers in the Psalms. Read this closing prayer from Psalm 19:14 over and over again and see how many words you can remember, without looking, at the end of the service.

What kind of things make people solemn?
What kind of things make you solemn?

Zipp-a-dee-doo-dah

Lent is about being solemn.

Solemn?

Oh.

Then I take back my zipp-a-dee-doo-dah.

It means serious or quiet.

We save our joy for Easter.

What commandments can you remember? Write the commandments God gave to Moses below.

(Hint: Look up Exodus 20)

God's laws are to teach us how to live. Not to measure who is good and who is bad.

Different churches number the commandments differently. How does your church do it?
