

Lent is about sharing things with other people.

Draw some things you can share with...

Your parents

Your friends

Your church

Jesus said, "My life is like the seed. I will die. But then I will come alive again."

Put the life of a seed in the right order by numbering the stages of growth.

I found the first one for you.

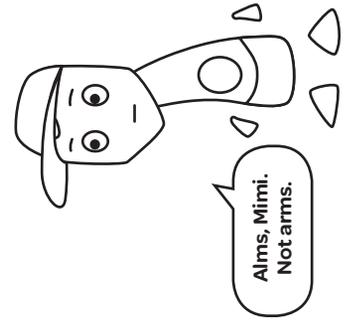

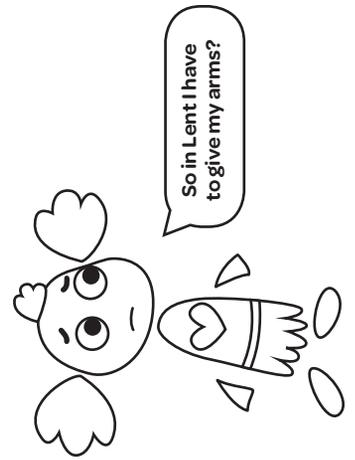

That's just what our garden looks like!

Lent is about almsgiving.

Almsgiving is giving money or things to people who need it. Think about something you have that you can give away to someone who needs it. Who could you give it to?

What helps us grow closer to God?

And what would you have to give up to do that?

Cross out the things you could do less of in order to grow closer to God.

Circle the things you could do more. Add your own things to the list!
