

Sit, Stand, Kneel

During worship, sometimes we sit, sometimes we stand, and sometimes we kneel. Draw a line from the word to the action.

GREEN SEASON

The color for this church season is green! Sometimes when things are growing they are green until they are ready to eat. Then they change color. They are growing just like us! Color these foods green and then their final color.

The actions of the two sons don't always match their words.
Circle the scenes that show actions that match the words.

Take an inventory of everything in the pew rack in front of you or under your seat. List it here.

SIT, STAND, KNEEL

Sitting, standing, and kneeling are the three main positions we use in worship. When we sit, we can think about and focus on the readings, songs, and pastor's sermon. When we stand, we show respect and reverence for the Gospel being read and for prayers. We often stand to sing because we sound better when we stand. We kneel to show extra reverence, like during communion or confession. Some churches even have kneelers that fold down.

THE TWO SONS

A father asked his sons to work in the vineyard. Fill out their report cards.

Please work in the vineyard, sons.

NO!

The first son said "No" but picked the grapes anyway.

I'LL GO!

The second son said "Yes" but did not pick any grapes.

I love report card day, don't you?
