AMEN AMEN AMEN

Amen! Yes! All right! So be it! Okay!

We say "Amen" at the end of prayers. It means "Yes, it shall be so" or "so be it."
Color these AMENs. Hold them up high at the end of each prayer you hear so your pastor can see them!

Paul wrote to his friends in Philippi and told them to REJOICE!

Color in the picture of people who are REJOICING!

Rejoice means to be happy! Really happy!

Rejoice

Look around your church today! Write down the names of all the people you know. If you don't know their names, write down something you know about them.

Put the COURAGE in En-courage-ment!

1. Find a person in worship who you don't know.
2. Tell your family that you will greet them during the passing of the peace.
3. DO IT!

What was it like? Write about it here.

ENCOURAGEMENT

In Paul's letter to the church in Philippi, he tells them to "be of the same mind." (That can mean trying to agree instead of arguing.) Two members of that church, Euodia (You-OH-Dee-uh) and Syntyche (SIN-tih-chee), were probably known for arguing.

What do you think Euodia and Syntyche argued about? Write captions for the words they are yelling at each other.

What do you think people disagree about in the church today? Make a list here.
