Jesus told stories by the sea.

Circle the people who are listening to Jesus.

Listen to stories about Jesus!

Can you draw an ear like this one?

Who tells you stories about Jesus?

I like to listen to stories!

Superhero stories are my favorite!

Sundays left in the Season after Pentecost .....

Jesus told a story about seeds growing.

Draw a line from the ground to the sprout that belongs there.

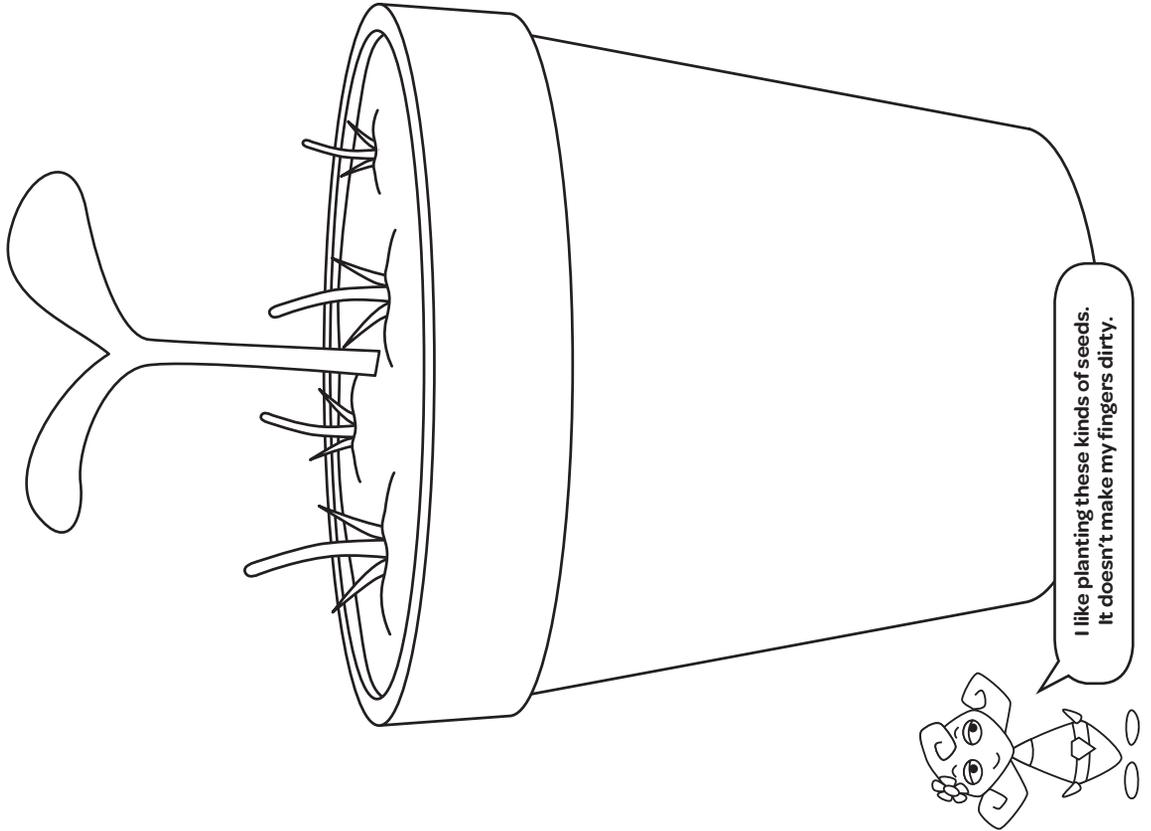

Poor little sprouts. I wish they all had good soil.

Today our church family prays for ...

Planting seeds of love.

Write the name of someone on the sprout. On the pot, describe a loving thing you can do for them this week.

This long Season after Pentecost is a good time to ponder God through parables.

Fill in the missing words to complete a modern day "Para" Lib story.

There were two good friends living in _____ city who sat together in _____ every day. _____ listened well, but _____ always got distracted trying to _____

_____

paper wads at the back of _____'s head.

Suddenly, _____ told everyone to put away their

_____ and get ready for a pop quiz. The listening friend began to _____ with a smile, while the other friend put their _____ down on their desk and cried. You don't have to be

_____ to understand how important it is to listen to Jesus with

YOUR _____.

Jesus told a story about seeds.

Complete each picture below: Seeds on the path were eaten by birds. Seeds on the rocks were burned by the sun. Seeds in the weeds were choked by thorns. Only the seeds in good soil grew to make grain.
